SALVATION ARMY CAMPAIGN BEGINS HERE ON SUNDAY

Although Campaign Proper Does Not Open Until Monday in Kentucky, Many Workers Will Spend Sunday Afternoon Canvassing Funds.

The state-wide campaign to raise a large sum for the Salvation Army fund begins on next Monday and will continue until the following Monday making one complete week. During this time Mason county is asked to raise the sum of five thousand dollars for this most worthy cause. In order to get a good start, some of the precinct chairmen will start their campaign on Sunday afternoon. This will be especially true in the city of Maysville and many of the ward directors hope to be able to complete their ward apportionment within a very short time.

No organization has presented itself to the public for approval and assistance that deserves it more than the Salvation Army. Every returned soldier in Mason county will tell you that the Salvation Army was one of the best organizations engaged in relief work at the front or in the army camps and for this reason it is felt certain that the people of the county will rally to the cause strongly and will back it with their dollars.

Sunday is designated as Salvation Army Sunday and all of the pastors in Kentucky have been asked to preach a sermon on Sunday morning that will assist in the campaign or at least to mention the campaign at their announcement hour giving it their endorsement if they feel like it. Mason county only has a small amount of money to raise in this drive and it is certain she will roll up a good oversubscription.

STATE WILL RESURFACE MASON COUNTY ROADS

State Road Department Will Spend Large Sum of Money in Mason County This Year at Resurfacing Model Roads.

Although the people of Mason county defeated the twenty cent road tax and thereby turned down the state road department's proposition to give this county $18,000 from the road fund, the Mason County Commissioners have been fortunate enough to get a proposition from the state whereby this county will get a sum just as large if not larger from the state department.

Representatives of the State Road Commissioners were here Friday and reached an agreement with the Mason County Commissioners whereby the State Road Commission will, at their own expense, and at practically no cost to the county, re-surface the model roads on the Mt. Sterling and the Lexington pikes.

These roads have gotten into very bad condition in some places and it will be very good news to those who use these pikes to learn that they are to be smoothed and put into first class condition again. The work will begin in a short time and will be completed this summer.

WILL MAKE PLANS FOR FOURTH OF JULY

As the Maysville Chautauqua program for this year considerably delayed there will be nothing out of the ordinary in Maysville this year on the Fourth of July to conflict with the proposed big soldier's celebration. The Directors of the Maysville Chamber of Commerce expect to get together this week to make arrangements for the big meeting which is being planned for Beechwood Park.

GATES DAMAGE SUIT COMING BACK HERE FOR COMPLETE TRIAL

Court of Appeals Reverses Local Court on Point of Law in Big Damage Suit Against C. & O. Railroad Company—Boy Lost Both Legs Under Train.

In the damage suit of Charles Gates vs. The C. & O. Railroad Company, the Kentucky Court of Appeals has reversed the local court and the case will be tried out in the Mason Circuit Court probably at the next regular term.

This case was taken to the Court of Appeals through agreement of the attorney for young Gates and the court in order to test out the law in the case. Gates brought suit against the C. & O. railroad company for $10,000 damages. Although the railroad train had so wounded him that amputation of both legs became necessary, he did not sue on this ground. In the petition he set up that he was riding a freight train as a trespasser when the accident happened but the railroad company's agents took charge of him and removed him on a hand car to Vanceburg where his wounds were dressed by a physician. He was kept there practically all day and brought to Maysville on a train in the evening and taken to Hayswood Hospital. It developed that gangrene had set up and amputation became necessary. Later this dread complication again set up in the wounded legs and a second amputation became necessary.

Gates sued the railroad company for ten thousand dollars not for the accident which caused the loss of his legs but for the failure to properly care for him when they once undertook to do so, and for the development of gangrene which he states is due to the railroad company's not properly caring for him which they undertook to do.

Lawyers for the railroad company filed a general demurrer to the petition charging that there were not sufficient grounds to maintain a suit and Judge Newell at first overruled this demurrer. Then to get the matter of law settled, he re-considered and sustained the demurrer and the case went to the Court of Appeals without the hearing of evidence.

This ruling of the Court of Appeals is a very important one and the first of the kind ever rendered in Kentucky. It sets out that although one is a trespasser when he is injured on a railroad, if the company undertakes to care for the wounded man they must do it properly.

The case will now be heard in the local court on its evidence and will go to a jury on its complete merits. It is probable that the case will come up for trial in the September term of court.

Worthington, Cochran and Brown represent the defendant company and A. D. Cole represents Gates in the case.

NIGHT BELL FAILED TO WORK

The investigation made by Mayor Thomas M. Russell to learn why the various persons who attempted to call the fire department by telephone could not get Central on Friday evening, developed that the Telephone Company's night bells failed to work at the Central plant and failed to awaken the night operator.

MOVING TO MAYSVILLE

Mr. Flora, Flemingsburg miller who recently sold his mill and his home at Flemingsburg, is moving to Maysville to make this city his home. Maysville extends a hearty welcome to Mr. Flora and his splendid family. He will follow his trade as a carpenter in Maysville.

MEMORIAL WILL ATTRACT MANY TO MAYSVILLE

The Memorial services to be held at the Maysville Christian church on Sunday afternoon will no doubt attract many people to Maysville from all parts of the county. Many Maysville people are planning to attend.

City Prisoner Guard Greene and his force of prisoners are in the East End of the city today cutting weeds. This has needed the attention of the city for some time and those living in the neighborhood are glad that it is being attended to so promptly.

Corporal Wm. Baldwin, of Ft. Thomas, Mrs. E. H. Kerr and E. D. Baldwin and wife, of Millersburg, are at the bedside of their mother, Mrs. Martha Baldwin, who is not expected to live through the day.

Mrs. C. L. Tanion, of Vanceburg, Mr. Eugene Tanion, of Huntington, W. Va., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Pollitt, of Limestone street.

The Ohio Cities Oil and Gas Company will resume drilling in Lewis county Tuesday of next week.

WAR HERO WILL WED SISTER OF ONE WHO GAVE HIS LIFE

Grover C. Frederick, Reported Killed in Action, Will Wed Miss Edna May Siddle Wednesday at Maysville.

Marriage license was issued by County Clerk James Owens here Saturday afternoon to Mr. Grover C. Frederick to wed Miss Edna May Siddle, both of Maysville. They will be married next Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents at Maysville by Rev. W. J. Loos, pastor of the Christian church.

It will be remembered that Mr. Frederick was severely wounded in one of the biggest engagements in the world war and was finally reported officially by the government as having been killed in action. He later recovered from the wounds of the battlefield and returned home although he is still slightly crippled.

The bride-to-be is the sister of Mr. Siddle, of Maysville, who lost his life in the world war and for whom Memorial Services will be held at the Maysville High School building Sunday afternoon.

BAND CONCERT AGAIN ATTRACTS LARGE CROWD

Another very large crowd of citizens assembled on Market and Third streets Friday evening to hear the Maysville Boys' Band in another one of their weekly concerts. Each time the band makes public appearance it shows a decided improvement and Friday evening's program was much better than those formerly given. The band also furnished music at the Gem Theatre Saturday afternoon where the feature picture "Mickey" was shown.

WILL EXPLAIN COMMISSION'S SIDE OF CONTROVERSY

Prof. John Hurst Adams, principal of the Minerva High School, one of the members of the State Textbook Commission, arrived home Friday evening from Frankfort where he together with the other members of the Board refused to resign when requested to do so by Governor Black. Mr. Adams stated that he would issue a statement in the near future explaining his side of the case.

SEVERAL AUTO DRIVERS CALLED BY POLICE

The enforcement of the traffic laws in Maysville continues each evening in East Second street and on Friday night a number of machines were stopped for failing to observe certain sections of the traffic laws. The most generally disregarded sections are those requiring tall lights to burn and the using of dimmers on head lights while within the city limits.

CIRCUIT COURT TO BE REOPENED IN BRACKEN COUNTY

The Bracken Circuit Court which was temporarily suspended because of the smallpox conditions in that country, will be re-opened Monday by Judge Newell. There is quite a bit of business to be transacted during this term and the jurors summoned for the beginning of court will again report for duty.

DR. BAILEY TO PREACH AT LOCAL CHURCH SUNDAY

Dr. B. B. Bailey, pastor of the First Baptist church, who has been assisting in a revival meeting at the Two Lick Baptist church, will be held Sunday morning and evening to preach at the local church. The public is cordially invited to attend both services.

The Oil Cities Oil and Gas Company will resume drilling in Lewis county Tuesday of next week.

LARGE CLASS TO BE INITIATED BY K. OF C. SUNDAY

About 85 Young Mason County Men Will be Introduced to Mysteries of Knights of Columbus at All Day's Session.

One of the greatest initiatory sessions ever held by the order of the Knights of Columbus in the state of Kentucky will be held at Elk's Home in the State National Bank building in the Maysville Lodge K. of C. Sunday. The session will begin in the morning and last all during the day and probably into the evening. Following the initiation a great banquet will be served by the local order.

Some of the most prominent Knights in the entire state of Kentucky will be present at the initiation to take part. The session will be under the supervision of District Deputy Donovan, of Ludlow, Ky., and among other prominent Knights to make addresses will be T. D. Slattery and M. J. Hennessey, members of the Mason county bar.

The committee on arrangements has been very busy all day Saturday getting things in readiness for the big initiation. Sunday promises to be a red letter day in Maysville especially among the Knights of Columbus.

The large class will be initiated composed of Mason county's fine young men, representative citizens and the local order is to be highly complimented upon the fine type of young men they are procuring.

BENCH WARRANT SERVED ON LUKE McLUKE IN COVINGTON

District Detective Catches Cincinnati Humorist on Kentucky Side and Serves Warrant Issued in Local Court For Gambling—Gives Bond For Appearance.

Since the last Mason County Grand Jury which returned indictments against James Hastings, better known as Luke McLuke, of Cincinnati and others, charging them with gambling in Maysville, efforts have been made to serve the bench warrant on Luke but all efforts have been of no avail until Friday.

Although the bench warrant had been in hands of the sheriff of Kenton county since the returning of the indictment he had been unable to serve the paper on the Cincinnati man.

Friday Luke evidently desired to quench his thirst on the Kentucky side of the Ohio and while he was in the city of Covington, a District Detective located him and served the paper. Luke was taken before the sheriff of Kenton county where he was allowed bail for his appearance in the Mason Circuit Court at the September term.

ENEMY EXPECTED TO SIGN TREATY IN SHORT TIME

Cabinet Changes Made and New Ministry is Pledged to Sign the Demands of the Allies.

Basle, June 21.—"As signing of the treaty now is absolutely certain," the Berlin Gazette said today, "the entente cannot refuse to take into account the ministerial crisis and grant a delay, as it is impossible to sign before the time limit expires Monday."

Paris, June 21.—Rapid political developments in Weimar were expected to result in formal announcement today that Germany will sign the peace treaty, more than two days ahead of expiration of the time limit.

A new cabinet, replacing the fallen Scheidemann ministry, was believed here to have been formed overnight. This body, supposedly pledged to acceptance of the terms, was expected to communicate its decision to the National Assembly today for ratification.

In spite of the optimism in peace circles here, allied military and naval authorities continued preparations for possible resumption of hostilities. The British fleet was reported to be ready to swoop down upon the German coast.

Marshal Ferdinand Foch, General Tasker Bliss, General W. E. Robertson and General Cavrole went over the military plans with the Big Four last night. Foch's plans were said to have received unanimous approval.

Travelers arriving here from Germany today reported the former Kaiser and Field Marshal von Hindenburg had advised the German government to sign the treaty.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

OUR "INFERIOR" CITIZENS

The psychological tests and examinations made of men in the draft and similar tests in the army later are said to show that more than half of these men were of a fairly high intelligence, four out of every 100 "very superior" and eight to ten out of every 100 "superior." But this left a painful proportion "below average," "inferior" and "very inferior." It is related that in the six months, ending Nov. 30, 26,000 were assigned to very humble duties and to special training because of their low-grade intelligence, which was below that of a child of 10.

The Philadelphia Public Ledger wants the country to wake up and see that something is done about this. But what can be done with men of such low mentality? Are they to be put in special schools like feeble-minded children, or are they the products of such schools? It does not appear that they lack intelligence necessary to the performance of certain forms of labor. Even a 10-year-old child knows enough to see the importance of being able to work for a living. If, under military discipline, they can do acceptable work—even of a simple sort, it is under some such discipline, perhaps, that their improvement lies.

Book education will not go very far in the case of men of little mind, and beyond the simplest elements of such training it is useless to attempt it, but unless these semi-idiots are vicious—in which case they should not be at large—there is no reason why they should not be taught how to do many kinds of useful work and it would be less costly to the community to have them so instructed than to let them drift about as tramps and embezzlers of the earth or to place them in asylums at public expense. There should be economy in human material and every individual of any possible capacity should be made useful according to his ability.

Before becoming excited about the matter, however, it is just as well to reflect that the psychological tests made are more or less experimental and are, very likely, largely inaccurate. As far as so-called test questions go, they are not always trustworthy as to results. Every teacher of intelligence and judgment knows that answers to questions in final examinations in school do not necessarily indicate the child's real knowledge of the subject. It is of course the same with adults. Few persons have miscellaneous information constantly on tap and when suddenly called on for facts out of a familiar line are extremely likely to fail in their answers when time for reflection would bring correct replies.

If this is true of men from 20 to 30 years, it is necessarily equally so with older men, and while an intelligent man could probably prove even to a psychologist confident of the accuracy of his investigations that he, the "tested" one, was not an idiot, it is likely that if the second draft had gone through, some strange results would have been shown. Before becoming agitated over the large percentage of "inferior" Americans, therefore, it is well to be convinced that the tests really meant anything.

SUNDAY NEWSPAPER A NECESSITY

In the discussions recently concerning the Sunday newspaper—a religious organization having proposed a resolution to oppose the Sunday paper—one of the ministers cautioned the assembly against taking radical action upon the question. "Let us be sensible about this matter," he said. "The Sunday newspaper is just as necessary as the Sunday trolley, which you attempted to condemn several years ago." He went on to show that the necessity of the Sunday paper had been amply demonstrated during the war.

The one thing which many people fail to recognize is the fact that the Sunday newspaper is made Saturday night and not on Sunday. There would be more logic in opposing the Sunday morning newspaper, if one were thinking only of preventing labor on the Sabbath.

But it really makes little difference about the discussions. The Sunday newspaper has established its place—and it hasn't harmed the churches either. It is going to remain in its place, too, regardless of all discussions. It is now championed by many of the ablest as well as many of the most religious minds in the world, and any organization that opposes it is simply fighting the elements themselves—or they might as well fight the elements. To be deprived of the news of the world for one day a week is to be one-seventh ignorant. And to fail to read the great Sunday newspapers with their additional features besides the news is to be more than one-seventh behind in the matter of spirituality.—Columbus Dispatch.

CONSTIPATION

And Sour Stomach Caused This Lady Much Suffering. Black-Draught Relieved.

Meadowville, Ky.—Mrs. Pearl Patrick, of this place, writes: "I was very constipated. I had sour stomach and was so uncomfortable. I went to the doctor. He gave me some pills. They weakened me and seemed to tear up my digestion. They would grip me and afterwards it seemed I was more constipated than before. I heard of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found it just what I needed. It was an easy laxative, and not bad to swallow. My digestion soon improved. I got well of the sour stomach, my bowels soon seemed normal, no more griping, and I would take a dose now and then, and was in good shape."

I cannot say too much for Black-Draught for it is the finest laxative one can use."

Theodore's Black-Draught has for many years been found of great value in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel trouble. Easy to take, gentle and reliable in its action, leaving no bad after-effects. It has won the praise of thousands of people who have used it.

Helmets Worn by German War Lords on Exhibit at Methodist Centenary Celebration

THREE helmets, absolutely guaranteed to have been worn by the former Kaiser William of Germany, Von Bethmann-Hollweg and General Ludendorff, will be on exhibition in Columbus, O., as a part of the Methodist Centenary Celebration, June 20 to July 13. They were brought out of Germany during the revolution by Lowell Thomas, world traveler and explorer, whose travolges will be given in Columbus as a feature of the celebration.

Thomas entered Germany at this most critical period, without passports or authority of any kind. To do this he was forced to hide out for days on the border. He was turned back twice, but on his third attempt succeeded in getting past a Swiss guard. He made some wonderful pictures in Berlin, showing street plots and the general chaos of the city at that time.

In addition to these views and incidental lectures, Mr. Thomas will show pictures taken in Palestine at the time of General Allenby's occupation. Thomas accompanied the British troops on this expedition.

Leading Lady In 'The Wayfarer' at Methodist Centenary Celebration

MME. BLANCHE YURKA creates the role of Understanding, leading female part in "The Wayfarer" pageant, which will be presented at the Methodist Centenary celebration in Columbus, O., June 20 to July 13. Henry Herbert, English Shakespearean interpreter, will have the other leading role.

Nearly 1,000 costumed characters will appear in the majestic religious pageant which will be presented every evening during the celebration in the Coliseum at the exposition grounds. The Coliseum boasts of the largest stage in America and seats 8,000 persons. A seated chorus of 1,000 trained voices will augment the effectiveness of the pageant.

Soloist in "The Wayfarer" at Methodist Celebration

MISS HELEN NEWITT, dramatic lyric soprano, will be the soprano soloist in "The Wayfarer," the great religious pageant which will be presented as a part of the Methodist Centenary celebration in Columbus, O., June 20 to July 13. Henry Herbert, English Shakespearean interpreter, and Mme. Blanche Yurka, will have the leading speaking parts. Viola Ellis, contralto, will be a soloist.

The pageant will be presented on the largest stage in America, in the Coliseum of the exposition grounds, which seats 8,000 persons. Nearly 1,000 costumed characters and a seated chorus of 1,000 trained voices will appear in the pageant.

FARMER PUTMAN ON SILOS

A silo is a hole, entirely surrounded by a wall, for storing cow feed. Sometimes the hole is in the ground; sometimes it is up in the air. To build a silo, first select a nice spot for the hole, then build a wall outside of the hole if you want to build up, or inside of the hole if you want a pit silo. Either kind is good, but you got to go about it different. If you can't put up a silo, put one down, but don't put it off.

can't decide on the kind of silo, some say it's too much work to haul the crop in and cut it up, some say it makes the cows teeth fall out, some say it gives them hoofs and hollers, some say it makes the milk turn green, some say the butter from the silage milk won't churn, some say it makes steers sour, hoofs, hoofs, and hoofs. Anything to put off silo building. I'm a tellin' you folks better get busy and look into this silo business; it'll mean money for farmers that feeds it to hogs and lots of it is fed to horses and mules. I wouldn't starve on it myself if I had to eat some good corn silage.

The Stories The Dewdrops Told

H. DOLLY LOOKS IN THE DEWDROP GLOBE.

"Well, what do you see?" again asked the lovely Dewdrop Fairy, as she lifted her wee watering pot that was no bigger than a thimble.

"Why, I don't see anything—yet," said Dolly.

"Look again, I am sure you will see something," answered the lovely green and pink Dewdrop, fluttering her gauzy green wings.

"No, I don't see anything but some ground with grass and weeds growing it—oh, yes—now I see some boys coming—and some girls, too. They have spades and rakes, and hoes, and all kinds of such things, and now the boys are beginning to dig like everything. What are they doing?"

"With them and tell me."

As Dolly watched the scene in the Dewdrop it moved as rapidly as a motion picture. Almost before she knew what had happened, the spading was over and the boys—and girls too—were hoeing the ground over and breaking up all the large lumps; then—in what seemed but a moment more—they were raking it all over into a still smoother surface. In fact, while she looked into the magic drop, she was seeing things that take place several days—or even weeks—being done as if in a play. Some of the movements Dolly could understand and others were a mystery to her.

"What are they putting all over the ground from those baskets?" she asked the obliging Fairy.

"That is food for the earth," she answered. "It is called fertilizer, and it helps the plants to grow and become strong, just like that tonic you had to take last year in the spring, when the doctor said you needed more blood."

"Ugh!" exclaimed the little girl; "I hope it doesn't taste as queer as that tonic did—else it would make all the vegetables sick," and she giggled.

"Sometimes the earth needs a little medicine just as much as you do; it needs nitrates and phosphates and acids to use in feeding the beets and beans and potatoes and vegetables that you want to eat, and the gardener must take a great deal of care to give different soils the right kind of food—or medicine—or whatever it needs. Those boys have been reading the Spring Manual of the United States School Garden Army and they have studied exactly how to treat the ground in this garden so as to get the most out of it. Now watch what they are doing."

Again the little girl put her eye close to the Dewdrop and saw that the young gardeners were hoeing the ground into rows and, in some places, little mounds or hills.

"What is that for?" she asked, for she had learned by this time that the Fairy loved to answer questions.

"Some vegetables are planted in rows like carrots and beets and radishes, and some are planted in hills like cucumbers and squashes. Every one who makes a garden should learn all about those things before he begins. And then he should learn just made."

Everything connected with that triumphant transatlantic air flight by way of the Azores was American made. And then he should learn just made.

CUBA PRESENTS GOOD FIELD FOR U. S. BUSINESS

Island Country Beckons American Advertisers—Is Splendid Field For Experiment.

"No other country in Latin America presents such favorable conditions as does Cuba as an experimental field for the American advertiser," says a report on "Advertising Methods in Cuba" issued today by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce. "Just as in the United States many advertisers cautiously test their plans by states or sections, so may the American advertiser use Cuba as a "tryout" ground for all Latin America."

"If discouraging results attend the advertiser's first attempts," continues Trade Commissioner J. W. Sanger, author of the report, "if his instructions are not carried out to the letter, and if irritating and apparently needless misunderstandings arise and delays occur, he will have to remind himself frequently that neither Cuba nor any other Latin-American country is adjusted to what may be called the "American way" of doing things. Neither is there any likelihood that American ways and business methods can ever be transplanted bodily so as to take root in any Spanish-speaking country, and the American advertiser who does not seek some practical compromise between what he would like and what he can get is building up trouble for himself from the very start."

"Cuba is buying American goods in increasing quantities every year. Advertising has been no small factor already in helping to broaden these markets, and it will continue to be of assistance in just so far as we take intelligent advantages of the means ready at hand and establish for ourselves more and better points of contact in Cuba for American advertising. The problems connected with foreign advertising, and for the time being inseparable from it, are many and various and are no more susceptible of short cuts and easy solutions than is the larger problem of foreign trade of which advertising is but one phase."

"The active work of your organization in France began early in 1918, was under way by the spring of that year, and has been increasing in scope ever since. Before the cessation of hostilities its workers were attached to many of the combat divisions and recreation huts had been opened in the principal American concentration centers. Numerous commanding officers have commanded the devotion to duty of your personnel, and have testified to their popularity and helpfulness among the troops whom they served."

"During the armistice it has been particularly active in the promotion of athletics, a most valuable factor for health and contentment. It has also contributed to the success of the army entertainment program by generous appropriations for musical instruments and equipment of soldier shows; has increased its general recreational activities, helping materially to maintain the morale of the army during the inevitable period of waiting to go home."

"The National Guard has just fastened peace-time conscription upon the youth of the state of Maine. They have slipped through the legislature a bill giving them the power to draft boys into the National Guard whenever they need additional members to bring the Guard up to the quota which would entitle the Guard to Federal support and its officers to Federal pay.

"Their motive is obvious, and utterly selfish. They are at work in other states. If your legislature is still in session, watch out."

"Help us fight this sneaking Prussianism which works for its ends without public discussion or candour. We'll send you a copy of the Maine conscription act if you are interested. Help us with funds so that we can meet this flank attack before it is too late."

The officers of the American Union are Oswald Garrison Villard, chairman; Amos R. E. Pinchot, vice chairman; Agnes Brown Leach, treasurer, and Charles T. Hallinan, secretary; and on the executive committee are Herbert S. Bigelow of Cincinnati; Dr. John Lovejoy Elliott; Miss Zona Gale; Owen R. Lovejoy; James H. Maurer; Henry R. It is all the more remarkable, therefore, to note in the report of the Reconstruction Commission of New York state, reviewing the three years of military training, that the whole thing has been a colossal and expensive failure, that it has not been possible to keep more than a fraction of the boys in the work, even with the police power of the state, that the military training offered has been negligible in amount and perfunctory in quality, and that the mass of boys have received no physical benefits whatever.

Those who are debating in their minds the question of military training versus physical training for boys of that period ought to send for a copy of that report. It is by no means a "pacifist" document, for among the names appended to it are those of Dr. Felix Adler; John G. Agar of the New York Times; Bernard M. Baruch, chairman of the Federal War Industries Board; Charles T. Hallinan, president of the Guaranty Trust Company of New York City; Charles P. Steinmetz of the General Electric Company; George Foster Peabody, director of the Federal Reserve Bank; Norman E. Mack, of Buffalo; V. Evert Macy; Mortimer L. Schiff, the banker-philanthropist, and others. The report has been excellently reprinted, without comment, by the American Union Against Militarism, Westory Building, Washington, D. C., for distribution to educators and others.

Schoolmen who are finding their boards of education running amuck on the subject ought by all means to secure copies of this clean and trenchant analysis of the way the thing has not worked when given a fair three-years' trial. Furthermore, the report makes some admirable constructive suggestions for physical training for boys, which, if adopted by the Empire State assembly—they already have the endorsement of Governor Smith—will put New York in the lead of all the states in promoting straight physical and civic training freed from the bad pedagogy of the drill sergeant and "eyes right!"

The duty of the switchboard operator is to answer your number calls and get connections for you.

If she stopped to answer questions, the number of calls would pile up and the service would be delayed; this would be an injustice to the other subscribers.

When in response to a question, the operator says: "I will give you Chief Operator", she is obeying her instruction.

If you cannot find what you want in the telephone directory, ask the operator for "Chief Operator" and she will connect you with the "Chief Operator" where your questions will be promptly answered.

WAS NOT ORIGINAL FEATURE

Pastime Management Had Not Booked
"Unpardonable, Sin" Representative of State Rights Owner
Says,

Manager Triebel, of the Pastime, explains that he was misled in the booking of the picture through a Cincinnati film exchange. He says he was led to believe by the agent that the film he was booking was the original "Unpardonable Sin" but upon the film's arrival in Maysville he had it run viewing it and soon learned that it was not the big feature. He did not show the picture to the public but returned it to the Cincinnati exchange and procured another picture for his patrons.

Mr. H. E. Matthews, Representative of the Big Feature Rights Corporation, Louisville, Ky., makes the following statement, relative to advertising that appeared several days ago concerning "Unpardonable Sin," a mammoth photo play that will soon appear at the Washington Opera House:

"The Pastime several days ago advertised that they would show 'Unpardonable Sin,' with Blanche Sweet on Thursday of this week. The picture Mr. Triebel had booked for that day was not 'Unpardonable Sin.' It was a picture made several years ago, different in theme and story. Our company, which has exclusive distribution of this picture in Kentucky, had never even negotiated with the Pastime for showing this picture. In fact, it is already booked for an early showing at the Washington Opera House.

"This is the same picture that has had such big business all over the country. It has just closed a two weeks engagement at the Lyric Theatre, Cincinnati.

"The picture 'Unpardonable Sin' that will be shown in Maysville, at the Washington Opera House, is the original 'Unpardonable Sin' with Miss Blanche Sweet, directed by Marshal Neilan."

Tuesday—The Lee Children in "Smiles."

Wednesday—Tom Moore in "Just For Tonight."

Friday—"Terror of the Range" Fatty Arbuckle and Pathé News.

MICKEY PROVES GREAT
FEATURE; MANY SEE IT

Washington Theatre Was Crowded at Both Shows Friday—Many Expected to See the Big Show
Saturday.

The big feature picture "Mickey" shown at the Washington theatre on Friday evening attracted large crowds which filled the large theatre at both performances despite the very warm evening.

The picture was all that it was advertised to be—a real human interest story filled with many exciting incidents. It was a story true to life in every instance. Mickey was a clever little mountain lassie who did all sorts of stunts said to be common to the mountain girl. Although she had many trying experiences she came through them all well.

The picture carries a first class horse race and a duel in the attic of a country mansion which are alone worth twice the price of admission charged. Mickey also does some driving comparable to an Annette Kellerman and with all her wildness of the mountains, is as sweet and lovable as woman can be.

This big feature will be shown again Saturday afternoon and evening at the Gem theatre and from the boasts given it by those who saw it on Friday it is certain that the Gem will be crowded.

STATE GUARD STILL EXISTS, SAYS GOVERNOR

Block to Issue Proclamation in Order to Secure Appropriation.

Frankfort, Ky., June 21.—A proclamation will be issued next week by Governor Black declaring that the Kentucky National Guard still exists.

As a result of this proclamation Kentucky will get the federal appropriation due it for National Guard and the guard will be reorganized.

Members of the Kentucky National Guard who were mustered into the national army automatically go back into the guard when they are mustered out of service.

The Governor will have the power to discharge men from the National Guard and any man who wishes it may obtain his discharge upon request after the guard has been reorganized.

It is the desire of the Governor and the adjutant general to determine by June 30 how many men will be called back into the service of the state's National Guard, so that the War Department can proportion the state's appropriation.

TWO DAIRYMEN TAKE

WHEAT CROP IN STATE TO BE LARGER THAN LAST YEAR

Although Crop Now Shows Decrease
From Early Prospects, It Is Much Larger Than Last Year

H. F. Bryant, Government Field Agent, has just issued the following report on the condition of grain throughout Kentucky:

With numerous reports of short or poorly filled heads and some damage from rust and lodging, Kentucky's wheat crop promises 14,707,000 bushels compared to a prospect early in May for 15,257,000 bushels. Last year the final yield turned out 12,129,000 bushels while the 5-year average, 1913-17 inclusive, was only 9,862,000 bushels. The heaviest damage has been, apparently, in Southwestern and Western Kentucky.

Oats did not do so well during the cold wet weather in May as might have been expected but are now doing well except where too hardly drowned out. The condition is now 96 per cent of normal and the acreage about 388,000 acres, 3 per cent less than in 1918, indicating a production of about 10,429,440 bushels.

Rye shows a condition of 98 per cent of normal. With about 62,000 acres in the state to be harvested for grain this indicates a production of approximately $56,716 bushels.

Barley acreage in Kentucky this year is about 2 per cent less than in 1918, or about 6,860 acres, probably due to increased burley tobacco acreage. Practically all the barley in Kentucky is grown in the Blue Grass counties. Condition of barley is 96 per cent of normal, indicating a production of about 203,554 bushels.

Hay has made fine growth but much of the first cutting of alfalfa was badly damaged by wet weather. Condition of clover is 96 per cent with the acreage about 3 per cent less than in 1918. Alfalfa condition is 96 per cent, because many farmers had to delay the first cutting until the second growth shoots from the crown got along they were clipped by the mower. The acreage is about the same as in 1918.

Apples are irregular. Many orchards had practically all apples killed by the late freeze but some orchards have a fair crop. The average is about 35 per cent of a crop. Peaches are about 33 per cent of a crop, while pears are only about 26 per cent.

Pasture excellent all over the state.

Truck crops are growing fine, but melons were severely checked by the cold wet weather in May. Blackberries promise a bumper crop practically all over the state.

COME TO COURT HOUSE

Sunday afternoon at 3:30, Mrs. Lizzie Towne, State Representative of the N. A. A. C. P., will make clear what the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is and is doing. All citizens of Maysville and Mason county are urgently asked to turn out and help us make a place in the great Moorfield Story drive for 100,000 members.

The workers in each ward are doing well and will report at court house Sunday afternoon.

AN APPRECIATION

Last night Market Square was thronged with people attracted by the music of our really worth while Boys' Band. No hat was passed for any cause, however worthy, no speeches made, however eloquent, but just the ancient, magic spellbinder, Music, held the standing audience, until with bared heads they listened to the strains of our National air, with which, happily, we are at last becoming familiar.

Many were the bouquets deservedly tossed to Mr. Young for the wonderful results he has achieved during his few months in Maysville. Loud were our compliments as to the untiring energy and stick-to-itiveness displayed by the boys who make up the band—a fine school for the development of those traits so vital to their success—but I am wondering how many people paid a tribute to the man whose time, money and constructive brawnless police have put the band where it is today—that man is Mr. Barbour Russell.

He has contributed anything necessary from a cornetist to ice cream cones—he has given freely of that energy and enthusiasm which he puts into every worth while movement and in this instance, the whole community benefits. The band committee as a whole has worked untiringly and successfully, but Mr. Russell as Chairman should receive the thanks and praise of the people of Maysville for the fact that six months after the band began to buzz in the heads of the Chamber of Commerce directors, we have a REAL band with a talented director, an adequate practice room, a beautiful band stand, handsome uniforms ordered, a reporter second only to Sousa's, a real band, composed of dignified, orderly young ladies and gentlemen—a source of pride and pleasure to our whole county.
